How to read passport chip

Place the mobile device on top of the passport's front or rear cover.

Make sure that the mobile device is touching the passport cover with no gap between them.

Slide your device slowly around the passport until the app recognises the passport chip. The chip is located in different places in different passports.

Keep your device still when the app starts reading the passport chip.

Please watch the reading the ePassport chip \(non-USA passport\) video for assistance.

Declaration

As an applicant, I understand that if my visa ceases to be in effect and I do not hold another visa to remain in Australia at that time, I will be an unlawful non-citizen under the Migration Act 1958. As such, I will be expected to depart from Australia and be subjected to removal under the Migration Act 1958.

Criminal convictions

Has the applicant ever had a criminal conviction?

☒ No

これまでに有罪判決を受けたことがありますか？

☐ Yes

Important:

If the applicant has been convicted of an offence in any country (including any conviction which has now been removed from official records) this means the applicant has a criminal conviction. This includes when the applicant has been found guilty of any offence, regardless of whether the applicant has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment or whether the applicant has a spent conviction.

If the applicant fails to disclose a criminal conviction, the applicant may be refused entry to Australia upon arrival and the applicant's visa may be cancelled. If the applicant has a criminal conviction in any country, the applicant should apply for a Visitor (subclass 600) visa instead.
